TOO GOOD to forget

A Good Time Had By All

STUDENT LIFE

The Junior Class takes time on their busy Booster Day morning to show off their float.

TOO GOOD to forget

Booster Day

This year's Booster Day was yet another memory which was too good to forget. The theme chosen by the Student Council was household appliances. The seniors' choice was a flashback from the past as they used a cheer from yesterday - "Wash 'em out, wring 'em out, hang them on the line. We'll beat Ludlow any old time." The juniors showed their courage with a wok — "We're gonna wok all over the lions' pride." The sophomores stirred up some good thoughts with a blender showing us the right blend to be a success and to win the game. The freshmen with their first float "We're out to toast you," really wanted to toast Ludlow.

There was a record turn out for the contest between Turners and Ludlow with many alumni returning to renew old acquaintances. Turners had a smashing victory over Ludlow with a smashing score of 37-8 setting the pace of good things to come for the Turners' team.

Although Mike Young was unable to play in the Booster Day Game due to a knee injury, he got a lot of attention at the rally — especially from Teresa Emery and Dani Letourneau, who escorted him into the gym.

Sue Burnham happily drives the convertible for Miss Virginia Stoughton and Mrs. Sophia Libby, the two grand marshals for the 1992 Booster Day parade. Miss Stoughton and Mrs. Libby are two former and very popular teachers of ours.

The football team gets all fired up before the long-awaited Booster Day game.

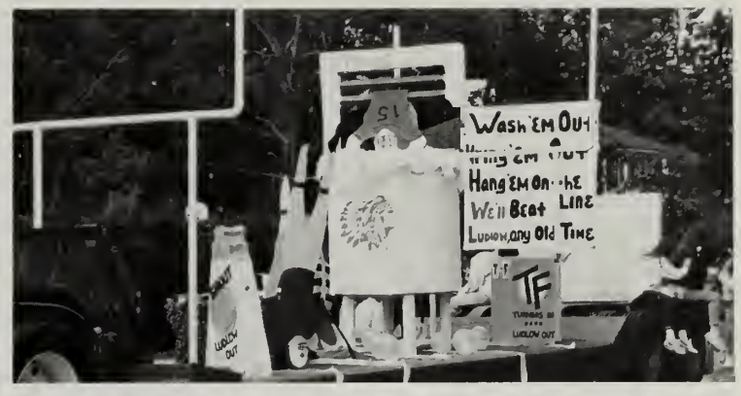
A Homecoming Too Good Too Forget

In the spotlight for the evening rally was Tiffany Brown whose voice rang out to the crowd as she sang The National Anthem.

Sonya Lamonakis, one of the MC's for the night, was trying her best to lead crowd participation and enthusiasm.



Mr. Slattery compliments Mr. Dobosz and Mr. Cokkinias as they both are all spiffy and riding in style for the day's big event.

Ebony Stewart, Dani Letourneau, Sue Stachelek, Jenny Messer, and Jen Stafford show their excitement as they receive the first place trophy for their Booster Day float. This was the third consecutive year the class of '92 has won.

After two long weeks of hard work, the floats were finally complete. Shown above are the senior float featuring an old-fashioned washing machine, the junior float, with a wok, the sophomore float with a blender and a special recipe, and the freshmen float with a toaster. All of the floats fell into the theme for appliances and were all winners within each class's heart.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is compromised of sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have maintained a 3.2 grade point average throughout high school and who have exhibited leadership, character, and service along with this scholarship. Members are inducted or re-inducted each March. Senior members enjoy the privileges of being able to come in late if they have a study hall first period and of being able to leave at any time during the day when no academic class is scheduled. Junior members may leave after their last academic class at the end of the day.

The officers of the National Honor Society, elected by the Society each year, are Michael Smiarowski, president; Dani Letourneau, vice-president; Lisa Laczynski, secretary; and Angela Wonsey, treasurer for the 1991-1992 school year. Mr. Stanley Dobosz is the National Honor Society's adviser.

The National Honor Society is a service organization for the school and community. Some events that won't be forgotten by the NHS are selling programs at home football games, tutoring other students during study halls in a variety of subjects, serving the guests at the Fall Awards Banquet, and supervising the Salvation Army collection during November and December at the IGA. Another project that the members can't forget is the hours they spent studying to maintain their grade point average.

Our prom took place at the Wyckoff Country Club which is located in Holyoke, MA. Our prom day, May 4, 1991, was TOO GOOD TO FORGET. The theme was "Time can do so much — Unchained Melody." Our entertainment for the evening was provided by the band, Paris. The price of the tickets were $25, and we had our choice of chicken or steak for meals. The room danced with cranberry and pink decorations. On arriving at Wyckoff, each couple introduced themselves to the receiving line. The place settings consisted of champagne glasses for the girls and mugs for the guys. Also the settings consisted of autograph booklets with the theme inside, a poem written by Dani Letourneau, and scrolls with cranberry and pink ribbons. Steve Kalinowski and Sarah Jenks reigned as prom king and queen. A good time was had by all.

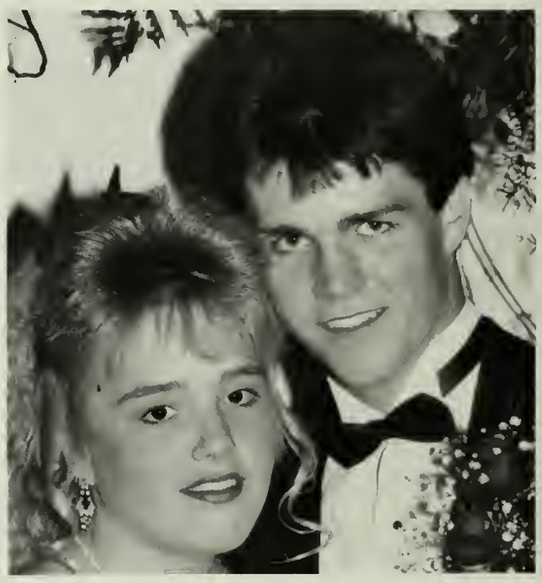
Sonya Lamonakis and Brion Robert, Sarah Rastallis and her date, Lisa Bartos and Bernie Conway are all enjoying the evening out at their prom.

Chris Zink and Stephen Smith are TOO COOL!



One of our class couples, Janel Brocklesby and Ryan McCord, know this prom is TOO GOOD TO FORGET!

Buffee Garbiel, Janel Brocklesby, Andrea Beaubien, Karen Hildreth, Lisa Laczynski, Sue Stachelek, are all doing the Chicken Dance.

TOP ROW: Mr. Monkiewicz, Mr. LaPierre, Mr. Morrison, Mr. Neville, Mr. Dobosz, Mr. Tierney, Mr. Jenks, Mr. Laczynski, Mr. O'Riley MIDDLE ROW: Mrs. LaPierre, Mrs. Morrison, Mrs. Laczynski, Mrs. Dobosz, Mrs. Tierney, Mrs. Jenks, FRONT ROW: Mrs. O'Riley, Mrs. Monkiewicz, Mrs. Neville, our chaperones for the evening.

The Good In All Of Us

PEOPLE

Too GOOD to forget

SENIORS

Senior year! How time flies when you're not really paying attention! All of a sudden those big, mean students who loomed in the first floor corridors have become us. It seems as if finally the school isn't so big, and lunch lines aren't so long. Though many of us agree that we aren't nearly as big or as old as the seniors were when we were freshmen, we do feel that we belong in Senior Hall.

A newly found class oneness has arrived. Cliques start to break up and the hall is full of laughter as we realize we are the Senior Class. Everything we do is either sadly savored or thankfully thought of as the "last time"-our last Booster Day and Turkey Day, our last beef and bacon burger, and our last class meeting. Together we face SAT's, college applications, and aspirations for our futures. We've grown up together over the years and will always remember our friends and the joy of working together as a class. For us, the Class of '92, high school will be TOO GOOD TO FORGET!

Mrs. Betsy Laczynski
Class Adviser

rs. Laczynski helping our class to sell tickets at football game.

Mrs. Laczynski trying to get our very spirited class in order for a class meeting.

You took us in even when no one else wanted us. You came into our lives. What seemed like only yesterday is now really nearing the close of our high school careers. We've all had our ups and downs, and being the caring and helpful person you are, you've helped us all through some of those not-so-easy times. Whether or not you realize it, you've been the backbone of our class; you have pushed us when we needed to be pushed and also stood back when we've needed our space.

Since our Freshmen year, we've grown a lot, and your positive influence and encouragement has helped us right through our Senior year. You deserve a pat on the back and a big hug of appreciation for all you've done for us. Thank you very much.

You have been the adviser for the Class of 1992 for the past four years and are too good to forget. You will always be in our memories, and we'll miss you very much.

Jennifer Lynn Andrews was a member of our class for the past five years. She was stricken with leukemia about two years ago. As a result, she missed much school during our junior year and will not be able to graduate with our class. To the right is a poem written by Jen Andrews that she would like to share. It gives us an insight into her strength and determination to win the battle. Good luck to you, Jen.

CANCER

I met you when I was fifteen years old, and you came on strong and aggressive.
I did not know how to handle you at first;
you frightened me quite a bit.

As time passes by,
I get to know you better and better.
I've become aware of the way you work,
and now I'm determined to get rid of you.

You make me work very hard day after day,
so that you will not come around again.
You tried to get to me,
but I would not let you.

My family and friends helped to fight you off,
you made them all very scared.
Although you are a nasty creation,
I've become a better person for having known you.

You made me realize one very important thing — life is very short.
I have only one thing to say to you — go away! go away! go away!

The class of 1992 will always have memories that are too good to forget.

Paper maché fights our freshmen year in float making.

Our high school years were too good to forget! As freshman, we started off with a tie for third place with the Seniors on Booster Day. Winnie the Pooh was orange and waddled down the street en route to the school from Unity Park. The theme of Booster Day was Disney characters, and we were led by Nicole Day and Ben Licata as Lady in Waiting and Knight. Then we had a dance with flamingos and a palm tree for which we took a loss of $75. During Christmas we sold candy canes, for Valentine's Day we sold carnations, and for Easter we sold Easter candy.

Our Sophomore year started off shining through as good as gold. The theme was cartoons, and we won first place with our Mighty Mouse float that came to save the day. It was made at the Bartus's house. Dani Letourneau and Matt Pelis reigned as Duke and Duchess and led our prize-winning float. During the middle of the year we took our PSAT'S and were getting prepared for the SAT'S. Those of us who were in foreign language classes hosted our first foreign language fair. So much electricity was used that we had a slight power outage. Towards the end of the year we began planning for our junior prom. We gave Wyckoff Country Club a deposit for the rental of the hall. We took a field trip to Lowell with our History class, and we sold Turners' towels — which we ended up selling at a loss just to get rid of them.

During our junior year we began to realize that our high school years were coming to a close. Most of us started to gain our freedom. We got our licenses and had the freedom to go as we pleased. Most of us started to sign up for the SAT'S and get ready to plan for college. For Booster Day the float theme was "Sneakers." Choose your Weapon — "Converse Sneakers" was our float. We decorated our hall and called it Junior Jungle, and we hung sneakers from the ceiling. We had our largest turnout for float making, and we tied for first place with the freshmen. We were lead by Eric Gemborys and Susan Burnham as Prince and Princess. At the Thanksgiving bonfire, we sold hot chocolate and donuts. During Christmas we raffled off a Christmas basket, and later had a penny drive. During the spring we had a car wash during which we had a lot of fun and made a lot of money. During the basketball games we sold candy at the home games which was profitable, but not as profitable as the illegal candy sales through Mrs. Laczynski's closet. Our prom plans finally came together, and we were entertained by the group "Paris." The theme for the prom was "Time Can Do So Much — Unchained Melody." We had our prom on May 4, 1991, at Wyckoff Country Club. We ended the year with Field Day when we took first place in Jeopardy.

Senior year at last! After long years of anticipation we finally got there. We acquired the right to leave at the end of the day if we had study halls. Then we had to figure out our likes and dislikes for The Senior Section in our yearbook as well as write our class will. We got a new principal and had to learn to accept some new changes. This year we got a new rotation schedule to figure out just as we were getting used to the old one. We could no longer choose our Physical Education classes, and we had an early, early Booster Day. September 28th was the day we took first place for our float of an old fashioned washing machine. The theme for Booster day was appliances. We were led by Angela Wonsey as Queen and Ryan McCord as King. This year's rally was M.C.'d by Sonya Lamonakis and was held in the evening. After the winning football game, we enjoyed the first dance of the year. We are now all going our separate ways, choosing plans for our future, looking at colleges, having those frightening college interviews, and applying for jobs. All of these memories we have shared together as a class are too good to forget

The Junior Class, a spirited bunch, attending their fifth Booster Day Rally.

As juniors this year, we were too good to forget. We had a lot of planning on our minds. Since Booster Day fell early in September, we had no time to waste. Many nights of hard work earned our "Wok" a respectable second place. Our class was also very proud of our Prince and Princess, James Tela and Keriann Kalinowski, chosen for their hard work and class participation. Planning our Junior/Senior Prom at the Delaney House on April 25, 1992, took much of our time, but kept us united. College preparations, PSAT'S and SAT'S, College Fairs, Drivers Licenses and finding jobs were some of the things that were worrying us. It was a miracle that we all stuck together so tightly and kept our "Class Flame" burning brightly.

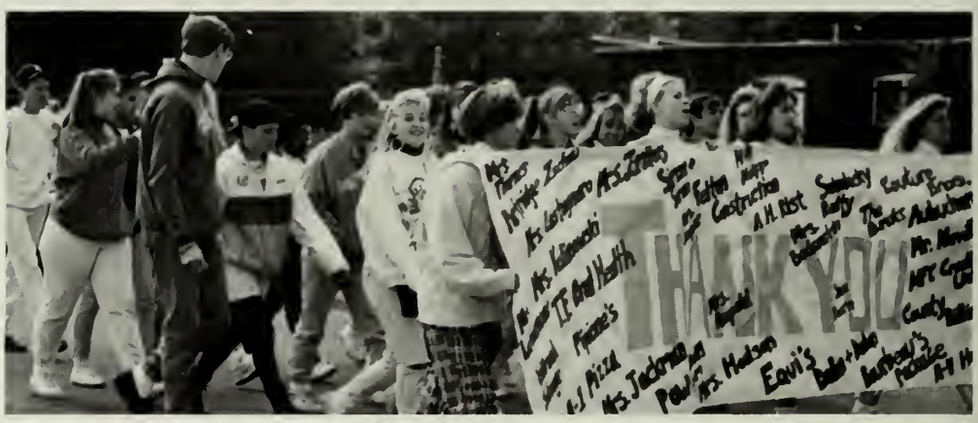
Juniors — A Happening Class!

When walking down Junior Hall, Chantelle Cote and Tracy Colby will always have a smile for you.

The Junior class was well prepared this year, making their third Booster Day appearance.



There was nothing but shouts and applause when it was announced that Keri Kalinowski and Jamie Tela would be Prince and Princess.

Raelene Lemoine, Jen Parent and Jenneth Janikas take advantage of lunchtime to relax and socialize.

You could always find Kai Bembury and Fran Fiorey working hard at Floatmaking.

Okay guys, just what is so funny?

We are very proud of our own Tiffany Brown as she sings "I'm Proud to be an American," with Mr. Kenny at the Thanksgiving Day game.

Jeff Morin, Stephen Smith, and Jeremy Reipold are watching events unfold across The Lobby.

A Class Of Many Styles

Okay Jeff Morin, are you going to let Stephen Smith in on the joke?

Devin Kenney, Mark Brown, Kevin Koldis, Xave Jackman, Dan Moore, Eric Bodenstein and Brent Cleveland sitting on the bench at lunch, as usual.

What did Kai Bembury, Sheri Kelley, Raelene Lemoine and Jenneth Janikas say to make Keri Kalinowski yell at them? Jen Isles is smart to stay out of it.

Jenneth Janikas does the Chicken Dance while Devin Kenney and Jen Parent look on and laugh.

Even in the crowded Junior Hall, you can always count on Steph Belanger and Tiff Brown for a smile.

It's not very often that you find this group of Juniors standing still long enough to get their pictures taken. From back, Keri Kalinowski, Andrea Beaubien, Ange Karpinski, Katie Letourneau, Jenn Emond, Ange Burek, Jenneth Janikas, middle, Raelene Lemoine, Jen Parent, front, Jen Felton and Emily Albright.

Sonja Briese, Ange Karpinski, Jen Parent, Emily Albright, Jenneth Janikas, Jen Annear and Cor Hanrahan are yelling that they have the spirit.

Chad Waryasz flashes one of those million dollar smiles.

Marc Cady proves he is willing to take a shower for his class on Field Day.

Jen Messer and Jeff Morin - warm and cuddley.

Mark Brown pretends he is Joe Cool while Brian Bogusz would much rather be Romeo.

What did that lone sophomore, Jamie Lively, have to do to have his picture taken with that lovely group of Juniors? Clockwise, Andrea Beaubien, Ange Young, Steve Brozo, Robyn Barber, Heidi Hackett, and Jamie Tela.

Page design by Raelene Lemoine and Katie Letourneau

Andrea Beaubien, Jen Felton, and Emily Albright seem to be busy writing letters to someone. Any guesses?

Our fearless leader, Mrs. Neville.

Keri Kalinowski, Ange Karpinski, Ange Burek, Jen Parker, Jenneth Janikas, Kai Bembury, and Kate Letourneau are smiling. Don't they know what's in the lunch?

Jen Parker and Tiffany Brown, en route to class, stop to see what's going on.

Tracy Bartus, Jen Felton, and Andrea Beaubien stop for a quick picture on their way home.

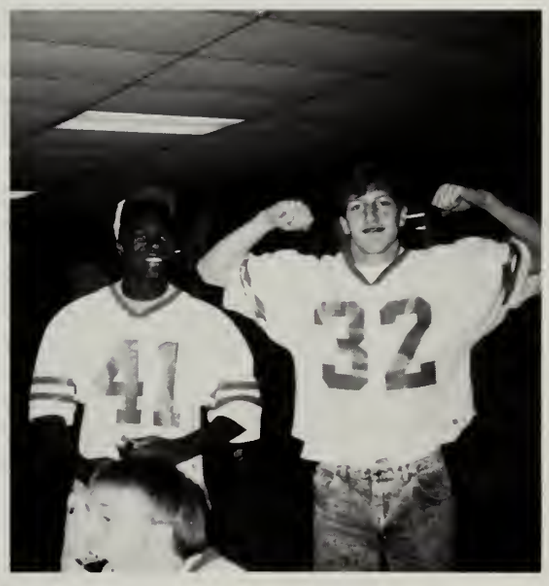
Jamie Tela successfully catches a water balloon while Andrea Beaubien, Danny Wood, and Mrs. Loomer look on.

No, Garth Fulton, you can't pull Bob Maher's head off!

While Jen Parker is trying to conceal her laughter, Keri Kalinowski has no problem in letting it all out.

Tiffany Brown, Raelene Lemoine, Jen Emond, and Shannon Young take a break from Prom Committee to smile for Mr. Kelley.

Sheri Kelley, Jen Parent, Jenneth Janikas, Kai Bembury, Shannon Young, Ange Burek, Ange Karpinski, and Raelene Lemoine stop the chatter long enough to smile.



Mike Hebert likes to show off his muscles while Tavares Brewington would rather keep his to himself.

It was too good to be true that as Sophomores we accomplished each and every goal we set out to — Some goals no other Sophomore Class has accomplished. This year Booster Day brought in a disappointing third place with our "Blender" float. We picked ourselves up with the first ever Haunted House. While helping bring the spirit of the occasion out, we managed to have fun doing it.

It was too good to be true when we found the six missing boys who decided to visit Rock Dam on our first bottle and can drive. Despite losing the boys, we had loads of fun and collected many bottles and cans.

It will be too good to be true if any long-lasting romances develop because of our first ever Dating Game or our second annual Valentine's Day roses and dance.

It will be too good to be true when we honor the forthcoming Seniors with the best prom to hit Turners Falls ever.

Sophomore year will continue to be a challenge for us, but look out — we continue our goal to be the best class to go through Turners Falls — ever.

In Memory - Trina Hamilton

The sophomore class was very saddened this year over the death of Trina Hamilton. Trina was born in Connecticut on June 14, 1975 and died in an automobile accident on November 11, 1991. She was 16 years old.

Trina was a good friend to many of us. She like to play pool and watch soap operas. She especially liked to wear clothes with polka dots and tiny braids decorated with beads in her hair. Trina was quiet in school but those who knew her, knew her to be energetic, very generous, and fun loving. Her death has angered many of us because we will no longer be able to share our lives together. Trina is thought of often and is missed intensely. We will never forget her.

Freshmen

As Freshmen, we came to Turners Falls High School feeling frightened about what lay ahead of us in the coming years.The first few days of school we realized how much more the teachers expected from us. The adjustment of being more independent made us realize how fast we were growing up. When Booster Week came around, we started to feel more a part of the school. On Booster Day Malisa Little and Matt Taggart represented our class as Lady-In-Waiting and Knight. Experiences like rallies, dances, sports, floatmaking, and other school activities helped us all feel like a class working together. Being able to participate in school activities with upperclassmen helped us to make more friends. Even though we had a shaky start at first, we feel now that we have grown closer and are more mature. This year has definitely been a growing experience for all of us.

Mr. James Cokkinias - New Principal

Mr. James Cokkinias is the new principal of Turners Falls High School. Before coming to Turners, he taught biology, coached football and baseball, then was the assistant vice principal at East Longmeadow High School. He has many ideas for T.F.H.S., but before he changes anything he wants to get a good idea of the school and surrounding community. This year is going to be a big period of adjustment for him. He will be doing a lot of observing to allow for making better decisions. Some of the things he'd like to see happen are a different daily schedule, getting scheduling done early for next year's classes, and more work with the transition into the ninth grade. The students and faculty at TFHS are happy to welcome him.

Mr. Cokkinias spends some of his lunch time talking with seniors, Andy Mathey and Jon Allen.

The Turners Fall Indians' football team came on strong this year with a 7-2 season. It was a great year for the Indians and left the seniors with a season to remember. As the weeks progressed, the team grew together and worked like a tight family. This was a factor for their winning season.

The Indians also had in their grasp a shot at the inter-county league championship but fell a few points short. All in all it was a memorable season, and it left the seniors with something to feel good about — a season too good to forget!

Soccer

The 1990 soccer season was a very memorable season, but it also hit the 1991 team with some tremendous holes to fill. Six seniors departed in the graduation class of 1991 and two of those six tied for most career goals and assists. The 1991 team also did not return three other starters due to academic difficulties. To say the deck was stacked against them would be an understatement and that is without mentioning the fact that many opponents would be putting out better teams this year than last.

Mark Lambert had to shoulder much of the adversity, and he was called upon to stop an impossible number of shots. Although the tough Pioneer team was able to score just one goal against him, Mark began to accumulate some nagging injuries which made things more difficult and the goals against started to mount up. Thirty-five goals were scored against the young defense in the first seven games.

It looked as though most games could be called without even playing the games, but things started to come together for the undermanned Indians. In the next seven games, the Indians allowed only twelve goals and were able to capture the elusive "W", with one to nothing score against Mohawk Regional on the next to the last game of the seson. Although the win/loss record won't be seen on any jackets, a Red Badge of Courage should be engraved on each player's chest.

Mark Lambert was voted to the All-League team for the second straight year, and Brad Hmieleski and Kevin Neville received praise from several coaches. The seniors who showed a willingness to stick with it and battle the odds were, Jon Allen, Marc Mayrand, Dave Chagnon, Aaron Petruski, Brad Hmieleski, Mark Lambert, and Ryan McCord. Coach Mullins would like to send a special thank you to Brad Hmieleski, Mark Lambert, Marc Mayrand, and Dave Chagnon for their work as captains.

The soccer team closed the door on their season with a banquet at the Lobster Pot in Whately, Massachusetts. Each senior was given a trophy for his participation in the 1991 season. Special awards were presented to the following players:

Abe Klein — Rookie of the Year
Brad Hmieleski — Top Offensive Player
Dave Chagnon — Top Defensive Player
Corey Stafford — Most Improved Player
Mark Lambert — Most Valuable Player

Turners has finally made a name for themselves in the Northern League. After many years of struggle Mrs. Bogue finally led the team to a winning season. Co-Captains Jen Stafford and Jen Emond held up a good portion of the defense as did Andrea Beaubien and Barb Bogue. Offensive/defensive mid-fielders were "aggressive" Ange Burek who gave her all in the game, "powerhitter" Sonya Lamonakis who was always there with a swinging stick, and first year player, Jen Felton who you could always find hustling down the field. The offensive line was Kate Letourneau, who always had a move to burn the defense, Jen Parent who was a great dribbler with an awesome pass-back and contributed a few goals to help Turners to their amazing season, and last but not least was Ange Karpinski who was a great reverse stick dribbler. Ready when needed were defensive players Sarah Valley, and Kim Tower. Ready for the offense was Beth Grybko, Emily Albright, Ebony Stewart. Foreign exchange student Sonja Briese always said, "I like field hockey!" in her first year experience playing field hockey. Every player gave her all this year, and a congratulations to all should be given to a very successful season of the T.F.H.S. field hockey team.

Cheer Cheer
For Turners High

This year cheering was too good to forget. With our boys' football team having a winning season, it was no problem getting the fans psyched at the games. "Let me see you boogaloo" was all we needed to yell. The tomahawk chop became popular once again, and the crowd was happy when we would "cheer, cheer" and dance after every touchdown.

Basketball season was no less exciting. For the first time since the early '80s, our team made it to tournament. Many of the games were close ones, causing the bleachers to "get fired up!" because "Turners is Here!"

This year our tournament squad will attend four tournaments: Chicopee Comp, Chicopee High, David Prouty, and finally States in Lowell, Mass. In three minutes we're expected to dance, cheer, and execute some very complicated mounts and stunts. Hopefully we'll come home with a few great trophies to finish a truly unforgettable year.

Volleyball

The Turners Falls Volleyball Team had many things that will not be forgotten.

This year varsity coach, Debbie Loomer, returned to her position after an absence of several years. Mrs. Heselton continued her position as junior varsity coach.

We could not forget early in the season when Mrs. Loomer had us write "Train Your Brain" on index cards and tape them in our lockers. These cards were our constant reminders to develop our mental skills as well as our physical skills.

Our long practices will not be forgotten. Many of us won't forget how we were the last team to finish practicing for the day while the other fall teams had gone home! We won't forget our challenging workouts beginning with a blood-pumping warmup, progressing to a multitude of drills, and finishing with our fun scrimmages, where we were finally able to test out our skills in a game-like situation.

The teamwork we developed, dedication we gave, concentration we had to work on, and the support we received from each other will be something to remember. Mrs. Loomer and Mrs. Heselton taught us skills that can be applied not only to volleyball, but to life as well. In this way, our coaches helped us develop as people as well as players.

The fun we had will also remain in our memories. Nothing can be more exciting for us than serving an ace, passing the perfect pass, setting a beautiful set, watching a powerful spike hit the floor on the court of the opposing team, diving on the floor for that save, or feeling the volleyball hit your hands with great force as you block that hard spike.

But perhaps the most memorable experience for the varsity players was the final game of the season at Amherst. We had lost the first game of the match and were trailing in the second when Mrs. Loomer began yelling from the bench. She told us that we were giving up. This was something we couldn't do, and once she made us realize that we were quitting, we had to take some action. We pulled everything together that we had learned all season, and with some consistent serving, we won the second game and went on to take the third game and the match. This was the highlight of the season for many, because it showed what hard work and dedication can accomplish.

Basketball

The 1991-1992 boys basketball season opened at the Casey Classic at Smith Vocational High school where the Indians won both of their two games. This was a start to a 9-10 regular season record and a place in the Western Mass. Division III Tournament, where they were eliminated in the first round.

The Indians were led by four seniors, Brion Robert, Mike Smiarowski, Marc Mayrand, and Mark Lambert and with a strong underclass, the Indians had a year too good to forget. They are leaving an impressive outlook for next year's team.

Turners Falls High School Swim Team

Starting off the season without having lost any swimmers from the previous year and gaining many potential newcomers, both teams looked quite promising. Getting the chance to work with returning coach, Jeff Newton, and new assistant, Trevor Scott, was also to our advantage.

The boys finished a successful season with a winning record, almost becoming the division champions. The girls, on the other hand, after having lost a few swimmers after the season started, did not turn out to have such a dominant team. Although they did not win any of their meets, individually, they each did well.

The season was hardly like any other before and will not be quickly forgotten. The team became much closer through its practices, bake sale, bottle and can drive, and many spaghetti suppers at Coach Scott's house. There were many laughs to be shared, some tears, and plenty of hard work that made us a better team.

GOD'S WILL FOR YOU AND ME

Just to be tender, just to be true,
Just to be glad the whole day through,
Just to be merciful, just to be mild,
Just to be trustful as a child,
Just to be gentle and kind and sweet,
Just to be helpful with willing feet,
Just to be cheery when things go wrong,
Just to drive sadness away with a song,
Whether the hour is dark or bright,
Just to be loyal to God and right,
Just to believe that God knows best,
Just in His promises ever to rest —
Just to let love be our daily key,
That is God's will for you and me.

Take time to remember, for the heart holds many treasures— golden moments that will always be a part of us. All it takes is a little quiet, a little reflection, to recapture a dream. So much that is precious is lost because we get too busy and let go of our past. But how much richer our lives can be when we take time to remember, when we take time to stop and think of special joys we've known.

Congratulations! Love, Mom, Dad, And Erica

Andy

We marvel at the way you
Think so intensely,
Feel so passionately,
Care so deeply.

We admire the way you
Embrace new ideas,
Challenge old ideas, and
Are not afraid to stand alone.

We pray that you
Hold tight to your ideals, yet
Cultivate a tolerant spirit
And a listening heart.

We love who you are
And who you are becoming.
